

Sea What's on the Horizon

Conference and Trade Show

September 9, 10 & 11, 2012

Rodd Royalty, Charlottetown, PEI

Dear Colleague,

The Atlantic Support Services Association and Canadian Association of Environmental Management is pleased to inform you of the following activities planned for our fall conference and trade show:

- Great speaker line up and topics of interest
- Great learning
- Outstanding networking
- Top industry suppliers exhibiting
- Great accommodation and meals
- Early reception/registration includes –Hors D'oeuvres, refreshments, oyster shucking – “learn to shuck em before you eat em” – Anne of Green Gables dress up contest – costumes provided by Cavendish Figurines Ltd.
- Banquet –Fire in the kitchen party, a seafood fest with lobster, mussels, beef, chicken, salads etc. live entertainment with fiddles, spoons and more
- Fun/Fun and more Fun
- Challenges, Prizes and more Prizes

Take advantage of the come early stay late special discounts negotiated on your behalf by ASSA and CAEM. For more information, simply click on the following link:

<http://www.meetingsandconventionspei.com/our-services/come-early-stay-late/caem/>

Come sea what's on the horizon for you,

Keith Sopha CEM, PHH

President of CAEM